Sutter Brings Back the Tree of Lights Ceremony

VALLEJO, Calif. — Sutter Solano Charitable Foundation will host the Dr. Merle Trewin Memorial Tree of Lights Ceremony at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 9 at Sutter Solano Cancer Center, located at 100 Hospital Dr. in Vallejo.

“The Tree of Lights Ceremony is a holiday celebration that presents an opportunity to remember people special to you and to designate a gift in their name or in their memory,” a spokesperson from Sutter Solano Charitable Foundation said. “These gifts help to raise funds for the Dr. Merle Trewin Scholarship. We will honor our loved ones with the reading of names and award scholarships. Please join us for a fun filled holiday evening.”

Other highlights of the Tree of Lights Ceremony will include the Sutter Solano employee choir singing holiday carols and an appearance by Santa Claus, who will hand out gifts for the children.

Scholarship and Donation Information

Scholarship funds named for Dr. Merle Trewin, former chief of staff at Sutter Solano Medical Center, are awarded to employees, and nursing and medical students.
